We may collect non-personal information through tracking technologies like cookies.

Cookies and Tracking Technology

What Are Cookies?

A "cookie" is a small piece of information stored on your web browser that can be later read by that browser. Cookies help the browser remember specific information, allowing us to enhance your experience. We use both permanent and temporary cookies on your device. These cookies do not contain personally identifiable information.

Use of Cookies

Cookies may help us:

- Analyze page flow and measure promotional effectiveness
- Improve safety and security
- Provide personalized content based on your interests

Most cookies are "session cookies," meaning they are deleted after you close your browser. You can decline cookies through your browser settings, though some features of the Website/App may not function properly.

Links to Other Websites

The PriveDrive Website/App may contain links to external websites. Please note that your use of these external sites is at your own risk, and we are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of third-party websites.

Data Security

Security Measures

We have implemented stringent security measures to protect your personal information from loss, misuse, and unauthorized alteration. This includes using secure servers when you access or modify your account information.

Data Storage and Transfer

Your information is primarily stored electronically, but certain data may be stored in physical form. We may store and process your data in countries outside India, complying with applicable laws.

Third-Party Services

We may enter into agreements with third parties to store or process your data. These third parties must adhere to reasonable security standards to safeguard your information.

Intellectual Property Rights

All content and materials on the Website and App, including text, graphics, logos, images, and software, are the property of Dieselry Solutions Private Limited and are protected by copyright, trademark, and other intellectual property laws. You may not use, reproduce, or distribute any content from the Website/App without prior written permission from the Company.

User-Generated Content

You may have the ability to post content on the Website/App, including comments, reviews, and other materials ("User Content"). By submitting User Content, you grant the Company a perpetual, non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use, modify, publish, and distribute such content as part of the services provided through the Website and/or App.

You agree not to post any User Content that is:

- Defamatory, offensive, or harmful to others
- Infringes on any intellectual property rights
- Violates any laws or regulations

The Company reserves the right to remove any User Content at its sole discretion.

Privacy

Your use of the Website and/or App is governed by our Privacy Policy, which is incorporated into these Terms of Use by reference. Please review our Privacy Policy to understand how we collect, use, and protect your information.

Disclaimers

- Service Availability: The Company does not guarantee the availability, accuracy, or reliability of the Website/App at all times. We reserve the right to temporarily or permanently suspend services without notice.
 - Third-Party Links: The Website/App may contain links to third-party websites. These links are provided for your convenience, and the Company is not responsible for the content, privacy policies, or practices of third-party websites.

Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, Dieselry Solutions Pvt Ltd shall not be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages arising out of your use or inability to use the Website/App, even if the Company has been advised of the possibility of such damages.

Obligations of Visitors/Customers/Users

To protect your information, we recommend that you:

- Keep your password confidential and use a strong combination of characters
 - Change your password regularly
 - Refrain from sharing your information with third parties unless required by law or in accordance with your agreements with the Company

Disclaimer Regarding Loss

While we take reasonable steps to secure your information, due to the open nature of the Internet, there is always a risk of unauthorized access ("hackers"). The Company is not liable for such unauthorized access.

Sale or Merger of the Company

In the event of a sale, merger, or corporate transaction, your information may be transferred as an asset of the Company. As the owner of this information, the Company has the right to disclose or sell your information during such transactions.

Your Consent

By using the PriveDrive Website/App and providing your information, you consent to the collection and use of your information as described in this Privacy Policy. This includes sharing your information as necessary in accordance with this policy.

Changes to This Policy

The Company reserves the right to amend this Privacy Policy at any time. We will post changes on this page and, if necessary, notify you via email. Significant changes to the policy will be communicated through the Website/App.
